CAAHEP accreditation processes for Art Therapy are managed by the Accreditation Council for Art Therapy Education (ACATE). ACATE is in turn overseen by the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP) and CAAHEP is under oversight of the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). CHEA oversight ensures that CAAHEP processes adhere to best practice and ethical processes. CAAHEP in turn ensures that ACATE processes adhere to best practice and ethical processes.

If you are a student currently enrolled in a CAAHEP accredited Art Therapy program or you are a former student, potential student, faculty or any other interested party and you have a concern about a CAAHEP accredited Art Therapy program, you may read the Complaint Policy. If, after reading the policy, you wish to file a complaint, you may do so via the link provided. Clear steps for due process regarding concerns, and opportunity to submit complaints, are provided through the home page of the CAAHEP website at: <https://www.caahep.org/Students/Complaint-Policy.aspx> (Located from home CAAHEP webpage under the “students” link.)
