

The forms , charts and surveys which are included in the Initial Self Study Handbook and directions may be requested in fillable form by contacting acatecouncil@gmail.com These forms are being provided in fillable version for your use at this time to foster construction of various tables and charts for ease of your review during your self study analysis and report writing.

Per the surveys provided in fillable form, you may transfer any survey questions to another online format such as survey monkey or qualtrix if you would prefer, as long as all questions and directions are included exactly as worded. PLEASE NOTE: the fillable version of the surveys is not able to provide an easily chosen likert scale number, and individuals completing the survey via a fillable word document will need to add their chosen number on a five-point scale, indicated in the survey directions. Please see the fillable surveys for a visual explanation.
